

TI-ELECTRONIC - Environmental Policy of Tommy-Invest Elektronikai Kft

TI-Electronic undertakes to:

- complies with applicable environmental, health and safety laws, regulations and ordinances and TI-Electronic standards;
- take appropriate measures against unacceptable risks to protect the environment and the health and safety of our employees, customers, suppliers and neighbors;
- take appropriate measures to prevent injuries and illnesses at work; provides a safe and healthy working environment for employees;
- assess the environmental, health and safety impacts before starting new activities and projects;
- interprets environmental, health and safety impacts in the design and procurement of products and services;
- eliminates unacceptable risks from facilities, products, services and processes;
- strives for the continuous improvement of the environmental management system, the conservation of natural resources, the elimination of the use of toxic and dangerous substances, the prevention of pollution and the recovery, reuse and recycling of substances;
- responds to climate change by reducing the carbon footprint of its production, products and services;
- requires its suppliers to comply with applicable environmental, health and safety laws, regulations and ordinances and TI-Electronic standards.

Budapest, 2022.01.07.

Imre Zoltan Gulyas
CEO
Tommy-Invest Elektronikai Kft